* BIM requires a Personal Public Service Number to issue a Passenger Boat Proficiency Certificate with Category A Commercial Endorsement.

If applicants hold a Certificate of Competency, choose Option A. If not choose Option B

OPTION A

Please indicate whether you hold the following:

- Deck Officer (Fishing Vessel),
Skipper Full Certificate of Competency
- Deck Officer (Fishing Vessel),
Skipper Limited Certificate of Competency
- Deck Officer (Fishing Vessel),
Second Hand Full Certificate of Competency
- Deck Officer (Fishing Vessel),
Second Hand Special Certificate of Competency
- Deck Officer (Fishing Vessel),
Second Hand Limited Certificate of Competency

Applicants must provide BIM with photocopies of their highest Certificate of Competency, a valid STCW 95 Elementary First Aid Certificate, plus an original signed Medical Fitness Certificate from a registered medical practitioner including evidence of satisfactory colour vision. An administration fee of €80 should accompany this application form.

OPTION B

An applicant, who does not hold any of the Certificates of Competency detailed in Option A, will have to:

- Achieve a FETAC Merit grading (65-79%) on assessment following BIM Passenger Boat Proficiency training and in addition hold/acquire the following:
 - STCW 95 Personal Survival Techniques Certificate
 - STCW 95 Elementary First Aid Certificate
 - Seafarers Medical Certificate (ENG II) from a registered medical practitioner including evidence of satisfactory colour vision
 - Original Declaration of Sea Service signed by a Peace Commissioner

Applicants must provide BIM with photocopies of their Personal Survival Techniques and Elementary First Aid Certificates plus an original signed Medical Fitness Certificate and Declaration of Sea Service. A course fee of €500 should accompany this application form. There is a fee of €30 to cover renewal of Certificate.

I am satisfied that has provided satisfactory evidence to permit BIM to issue a Passenger Boat Proficiency Certificate with Category A Commercial Endorsement on behalf of the Minister of Transport.
